Don't Dis My Tech

Discover the world of assistive technology

3rd December, 11am - 2pm
Newcastle Region Library, Laman St

The event will include entertainment, displays and workshops presented by the National Disability Insurance Agency.

From the simple to the more complex, assistive technology includes everything from jar openers to fully integrated power wheelchairs that can be powered by mouth, smart phones, voice activated home automation systems, e-books and audio books, eye gaze technologies, full car driver modifications and more.
