VENUE: CANBERRA
Majura Function Room

ADDRESS: 2 Rosevear Place,
Dickson ACT

Very interactive workshop! Best part is being able to touch and see the devices.

~Person with CCN

Clear, informative presentation of communication/language development, and detailed assessment process. Presentation was great: excellent visuals, videos, case studies... and humour. ~OT

Enjoyed the excitement and energy in the room throughout the learning process.

The in-depth training will provide ample hands-on opportunities to explore communication apps, accessibility features, and accessories.

The in-depth training will:

- Build the confidence and knowledge of professionals working with people with complex communication needs
- Give an overview of communication stages (pre-intentional and intentional) and language development
- Explore the SETT framework with case studies about AAC users
- Provide professionals with guidelines to prescribe mobile technologies, including options for access, setting up and programming of communication devices
- Look at telecommunication functions of communication apps/software, such as emailing, texting, accessing social media, etc.
- Cover cyber safety tips

Visit www.ilcnsw.asn.au for more info about the workshops.

Telecommunication absolutely improves the quality of life of people with CCN. It gives them a voice and a personality. It also allows them to pursue their interests and feel more confident that their daily needs will be met.
